- 12:00 – 13:00 General discussion: Common topics, interdisciplinarity
- Can we identify disciplinary or interdisciplinary approaches in our research? How are they reflected in our work and how do they guide our thinking/analytical framework?
  - What do we consider the most important topics when studying ‘mobility within and to the Global South’?
- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch break
- 14:00 – 15:15 Session I (group discussion): Migration and citizenship regimes
- In which ways are migration and citizenship regimes relevant in our particular case studies?
  - What can we say about the dynamics between structure (legal frameworks) and agency (migrant strategies) in our case studies?
  - Which kind of practical insights can we derive from comparing legal frameworks?
- 15:15 – 16:00 Presentation of results
- 16:00 – 16:30 Coffee break
- 16:30 – 17.45 Session II (group discussion): Migrant sociability and networks
- Which kinds of ‘groups’ or networks do we work on? Are we focusing on a certain kind of social class, gender, ethnic or age group? Why, or why not?
  - In which way do particular ‘characteristics’ of these groups shape their migration experience and strategies?
- 17:45 – 18:30 Presentation of results
- 19:30 Dinner, Hellers Brauhaus, Roonstr. 33, 50674 Cologne
